

Hidden Secrets of Hawaii

Quiz

True / False

1. The Korean immigrant community raised funds for the Korean independence movement.
2. The majority of the first Korean immigrants were women.
3. The picture brides were paid to come to Hawaii.
4. The first group of Korean immigrants came to Hawaii to labor on sugarcane plantations.

Multiple Choice

1. Why was the Center for Korean Studies at the University of Hawaii established in 1972?
  - a. The Korean immigrant communities wanted to spread Korean culture to other nationalities in Hawaii.
  - b. The President of the University of Hawaii, who was a descendant of the first Korean immigrant to Hawaii, wanted to preserve records on Korean immigration.
  - c. Hawaii had the largest Korean immigrant population, and there was a need for education in Korean studies.
  - d. People in Korea requested that the Korean immigrant communities establish a research center to document and share the historical significance of Korean immigrants.
2. How did Korean plantation workers adapt and settle down in Hawaii?
  - a. by forming a family
  - b. by owning a plantation
  - c. by studying in higher education institutions
  - d. by working longer hours

Short Answer

1. How did the "Korean Women's Relief Society" fundraise to support the Korean independence movement, and in what ways did its methods differ from the "Korean National Association" and "Dongji Hoi?"

1: T / 2 : F / 3: F / 4:T

Multiple Choice 1: (c) / 2: (a)