

Ronald Moon

Quiz

True / False

1. Ronald Moon used his power as Hawaii Supreme Court Justice to support only Korean businesses.
2. Ronald Moon wants to be remembered as someone who followed the law and influenced other people to follow the law.
3. Ronald Moon's grandfathers both knew exactly where they were headed when they left Korea.
4. Wahiawa was the first Korean community.

Multiple Choice

1. How did Ronald Moon view the law?
  - a. As a static set of rules to be strictly interpreted
  - b. As a dynamic tool for achieving justice and fairness
  - c. As a hindrance to societal progress
  - d. As a means of preserving traditional values
2. How did Ronald Moon contribute to the legal area?
  - a. He took a very active role as a mentor to new lawyers and judges.
  - b. He taught other judges to have integrity and honor.
  - c. He forced other Justice of the Hawaii Supreme Court to be lenient on Korean.
  - d. All above

Short Answer

1. Why did Ronald Moon fear living a life without contributing?

1: F / 2: T / 3: F / 4: F

Multiple Choice 1: (b) / 2: