

Gary Pak

Quiz

True / False

1. Gary grew up and lived his whole life in Hawaii and identifies as a local.
2. Gary Pak's grandparents, especially his maternal grandmother, influenced his decision to become a writer.
3. Lim Ok Soon's parents were killed by Japanese soldiers, leaving her an orphan.
4. Lim Ok Soon (Gary's grandmother) was a plantation worker who traveled to Hawaii as a teenager.

Multiple Choice

1. Who were the Picture Brides?
 - a. Japanese women wearing all white in paintings from the early 1900s.
 - b. Young women from East Asia who traveled to become plantation wives.
 - c. Wedding dress models from Korea in the early 1900s.
 - d. Hawaiian women who married Korean sugarcane plantation workers.
2. What is the topic of Gary Pak's project, Plantation Children?
 - a. Interviews with the descendants of Korean plantation workers.
 - b. Short fictional stories about child workers on Hawaiian plantations.
 - c. A tour of Gary Pak's home on historic plantation land, along with his memories of his grandmother from his childhood.
 - d. A historical account of sugar cane plantations and harvest techniques.

Short Answer

1. Why is it important to recognize and include the experiences of ordinary individuals in the study of history? How do the lives of everyday people contribute to a more comprehensive understanding of historical events and societal changes?

1: T / 2: T / 3: T / 4: F

Multiple Choice 1: (b) / 2: (a)